NOW-FORWARD

Dallas Area
Guide to Emergency Assistance
Including Collin County

2025 Edition

The Dallas Area Guide to Emergency Assistance is intended to highlight those agencies that provide emergency services including food, meals, housing, clothing, financial assistance, and medical/dental support. In almost all cases, the zip code where the client lives determines if a particular agency is appropriate. Since the mission, focus, and area-served for each agency varies widely, the services, hours of operation, and other special requirements for an agency should be reviewed before referring a client for help.

Dear Friends:

The Dallas Area Guide to Emergency Assistance is compiled to assist caseworkers, volunteers, clergy, and other staff people to locate appropriate resources for their clients. It attempts to clarify the availability and limitations of community resources. The Guide is not intended for clients or patients.

Now-Forward's mission is based on three principles:

- To provide charitable assistance to people in need
- To promote a sense of self-respect and responsibility
- To work with other organizations to respond to conditions of human need

Since its founding in 1983, Now-Forward has emphasized communication and cooperation with its member congregations and area agencies to see that the most effective and appropriate assistance is provided to those in need. The publication of this Guide is intended to foster cooperation by listing private and public entities that provide food, financial assistance, clothing, and medical care as well as those that address longer-term needs.

In his book The Working Poor, David Shipler wrote, "Each person's life is the mixed product of bad choices and bad fortune, of roads not taken and roads cut off by the accident of birth or circumstance. It is difficult to find someone whose poverty is not somehow related to his or her unwise behavior...And it is difficult to find behavior that is not somehow related to the inherited conditions of being poorly parented, poorly educated, poorly housed."

We have all chosen to aid those Shipler describes. It is our responsibility, our challenge, our reward. This Guide is a tool to help all of us to work together, leveraging the strengths we bring to the fight.

Now-Forward distributes the Dallas Area Guide to Emergency Assistance at no cost to over 700 congregations, social service agencies, hospitals, law enforcement agencies, schools, and other public and private entities. We hope that you find it a useful and valuable resource.

Best wishes for continued success,

Judy Rorrie
Executive Director

SUPPLEMENTAL FOOD PROGRAM

Administration: City of Dallas, Texas Department of Health and Human Services

2377 Stemmons Fwy., Suite 400, Dallas, TX 75207

To locate the WIC clinic closest to your location call

T. 214.670.7200

T. 1.800.942.3678

Services Offered: Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children — is a health and nutrition program with a successful record of improving the diet of infants, children, and pregnant, postpartum and breastfeeding women. WIC provides nutrition education, nutritious foods, referrals to health and human services and breastfeeding support. Food benefits are issued for each client. Both fathers and mothers can receive and spend the benefits for their children. There are bilingual workers at every location. Available to those who are undocumented, unmarried, or have private health insurance.

Eligibility: Pregnant women; women who are breastfeeding a baby under 1 year of age; women who have had a baby in the past six months; parents, step-parents, guardians, and foster parents of infants and children under the age of 5; fathers of children under the age of 5. WIC qualifications are based on household income and the number of people in the family. Clients approved for Food Stamps, Medicaid, or TANF will automatically qualify for WIC. WIC services include supplemental food and formula for all income eligible pregnant women, nursing mothers, and children up to the age of 5 in Dallas County.
